Dear Mr. Ledroit

Diocese ats Adrien St. Louis
Our File: 316323-000021

I am reluctantly writing to you on the subject of your firm's continued representation in the action which you have commenced on behalf of Mr. St. Louis. I say reluctantly, because while I wish to give no offence, I believe it is my duty to make the request that is asserted in this letter.

In view of the lawsuit commenced against your firm and Mr. St. Louis by Bishop LaRocque, I do not consider it appropriate for Ledroit Beckett to remain counsel of the record for Mr. St. Louis in the action which you have commenced on his behalf. You should, in short, in my view, and on your own initiative, have your firm removed from the record.

I do not make this request lightly nor, in making it, do I wish to give offence. I think the request is appropriate in the circumstances and I believe that the rationale for it will be of no surprise to counsel of your seniority.

May I hear from you at your earliest convenience.

Yours truly,
