Dear Det. Insp. Smith:

Re: Investigation concerning Father Charles MacDonald

Further to our discussion in respect of the above-captioned matter, I wish to confirm the following:

1. In the summer of 1993 I was contacted by Murray MacDonald, Crown Attorney for Stormont, Dundas and Glengarry in relation to the above-captioned matter.
2. I was informed that an investigation was being conducted concerning Father MacDonald and that it may become necessary at some point for me to review the matter with a view to determining if charges should be laid.
3. I was informed by Murray MacDonald at this time that he felt he may possibly be in a position of conflict of interest.
4. I am given to understand that eventually charges were never laid.
5. I was never consulted by the investigators in this matter.
